

“Here We Come to Worship”

Gal 3:23-29

(Pastor Bryan Chapell 1-29-17)

Connect:

- 1) If you have been baptized, share briefly about the experience.

Discuss:

- 1) Read Gal 3:23-29. Take a moment to discuss your takeaways concerning what you learned from the sermon about how we cross the line in loyalty to Jesus by the witness of baptism.
(Remember the Alamo)
- 2) What does it mean that we are imprisoned by the law and what does the law reveal to us?
(vs.23)
- 3) What does Baptism do and not do? (vs. 25-26) How might you explain that to a child or young believer?
- 4) Pastor Bryan called baptism the passport for your heart at border crossings because it reminds me and tells others what? (vs. 27-29)
- 5) How has your view of baptism been changed or more deepened having studied this passage?
How might what you learned benefit someone else to hear?

Partner:

1. Share anything that is heavy on your heart, keeping you up at night, or maybe something God has directed your attention towards lately.
2. Pray for one another.
