- 1) Looking back at the past week what are some things you recall that are worthy of praise?

Discuss:

- 1) Read Phil 4:8-9.
- 2) What happens if we are only condemning what is outside of Scripture regarding sexual expression and never celebrating the pleasures and purpose of biblical marriage? (What will the world do if that is all we do?)
- 3) How would you explain a biblical view of sexual expression to someone who currently says, “It’s only chemical”? (physical and spiritual)
- 4) What did you learn from the sermon concerning what is “true”, what is “just” and what is “best” in regards to sexual expression? (What is at stake when someone practices sexual expression outside of the covenantal marriage relationship of a husband and wife?)
- 5) How does the covenant of marriage reflect the Gospel? How does knowing that encourage you?
- 6) When is the right time for someone to ask for help if they are struggling with sexual sin or a troubled marriage? How would you want someone to respond to your call for help if it was you? How would Christ respond?
