ADULTS

Caring for Widow

We want all aspects of our lives here at Grace to be a display of God's glory and there is now a new way to do just that: our new "Caring for Widows." Did you know there are over 100 widows in our church? Many of them have a variety of needs: physical (home repairs and maintenance, medical, transportation), financial, and emotional (spiritual encouragement, social engagement).

Your help would be greatly appreciated. Whether praying for our widows, visiting and encouraging them, contributing financially to the ministry, or providing assistance with maintenance and repair projects, all are necessary and an invaluable part of this ministry. If you'd like more information, visit their table in the atrium after the service or contact Kerry Frantz, kfrantz@gracepres.org, 309.589.6412.

Grace Women's Fellowship

Tuesday, August 20, 6 PM

All women are invited to a picnic at the home of Janet Flinn at 109 White Oak Lane, East Peoria. Dinner will be served, and we'll enjoy a great time of fellowship! For more information, please contact Carol Learned at 231-0401.

CHILDREN

Share God's Love With Our Youngest Generation

As we excitedly look forward to the fall, we see there are some openings for volunteers in children's ministry. Please consider joining our team as we share God's love with the youngest generation and teach them more about Christ. We need table teachers, nursery workers, secretaries, room leaders, and plenty of helpers! For more information visit, www.gracepres.org/kidzvolunteers.
