GRACE FAMILY WORSHIP GUIDE

October 4th, 2026

Sermon Reflections & Activities: Daily questions and activities based on the past week's sermon. Level 1 children can draw, while Level 2 (older children) and Level 3 (teens/adults) discuss the text together.

Worship Song: Prepare for worship by learning one stanza per week, including hand motions for young children.

Memory Verse: A new scripture passage tied to the sermon series every four weeks. Aim to memorize roughly one verse each week.

John 15:1-5

I am the true vine, and my Father is the vinedresser. ²Every branch in me that does not bear fruit he takes away, and every branch that does bear fruit he prunes, that it may bear more fruit. ³Already you are clean because of the word that I have spoken to you. ⁴Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit by itself, unless it abides in the vine, neither can you, unless you abide in me. ⁵I am the vine; you are the branches. Whoever abides in me and I in him, he it is that bears much fruit, for apart from me you can do nothing.

Weekly Bible Reading: Follow a 3-year chronological plan (5 chapters/week) to build reading habits and align with Sunday School (The Gospel Project) topics.

This Week: Psalms 100, 101, 102, 103, 104

Grace Presbyterian Church

October 4th - October 10th

Sunday: Romans 11:33–36 Oh, the depth of the riches and wisdom and knowledge of God! How unsearchable are his judgments and how inscrutable his ways! ³⁴“For who has known the mind of the Lord, or who has been his counselor?” ³⁵“Or who has given a gift to him that he might be repaid?” ³⁶For from him and through him and to him are all things. To him be glory forever. Amen.

- Level 1 — Draw some of the good things God has given you. They might include your family, your home, food, or a favorite place to play.
- Level 2 — Paul asks whether anyone has given God something that he must repay. Why is the answer no? What does God need from us?
- Level 3 — How might our attitudes toward our abilities, possessions, and accomplishments change if we remembered that everything we have first came from God?

Monday: Romans 1:21–23 For although they knew God, they did not honor him as God or give thanks to him, but they became futile in their thinking, and their foolish hearts were darkened. ²²Claiming to be wise, they became fools, ²³and exchanged the glory of the immortal God for images resembling mortal man and birds and animals and creeping things.

- Level 1 — Draw a picture of someone choosing to help another person instead of insisting on getting their own way.
- Level 2 — What does it look like to live as though everything (even God) is about me?
- Level 3 — How does Romans 1 explain what has happened to us?

Tuesday: Romans 5:6–8 For while we were still weak, at the right time Christ died for the ungodly. ⁷For one will scarcely die for a righteous person—though perhaps for a good person one would dare even to die— ⁸but God shows his love for us in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us.

- Level 1 — Draw a cross and an empty tomb. Talk together about what Jesus did to save sinners.
- Level 2 — What does Jesus’ death show us about God’s mercy?
- Level 3 — Why is it important that Paul begins Romans 12 by appealing to believers “by the mercies of God”?

Wednesday: Romans 12:1 I appeal to you therefore, brothers, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God, which is your spiritual worship.

- Level 1 — Draw a picture of something you have made for someone you love. Talk about why that person might treasure it even if it wasn’t perfect.
- Level 2 — Why does God accept our worship even when it isn’t perfect?
- Level 3 — How does knowing that God accepts us through Christ change the way we respond to our failures and continue serving him?

Thursday: Romans 12:1 I appeal to you therefore, brothers, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God, which is your spiritual worship.

- Level 1 — Draw yourself doing an ordinary activity—eating breakfast, playing a game, helping at home, or doing schoolwork—in a way that honors God.
- Level 2 — What do you spend most of your time in a week doing? What might it look like to do that to the praise of God?
- Level 3 — What part of your daily life is easiest to think of as belonging to God? What part is easiest to treat as though it belongs only to you? What would it mean to offer that part of your life to him?

Friday: Romans 12:2 Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewal of your mind, that by testing you may discern what is the will of God, what is good and acceptable and perfect.

- Level 1 — Draw two speech bubbles. In one, write or draw something selfish you might be tempted to say. In the other, write or draw something kind and truthful you could say instead.
- Level 2 — What are some things friends, shows, games, or advertisements might teach us to want? How can God’s Word help us decide whether those things are good?
- Level 3 — Why isn’t the Christian life simply a list of rules? What habits help you learn to think about life in light of God’s character and Word?

Saturday: 2 Timothy 3:14–4:5

- Level 1 — Draw a pastor preaching the Bible to a congregation.
- Level 2&3 — What questions do you have about this passage?
